

GREY FRIAR WINS RICH GRAND UNION HOTEL STAKES, RIDDEN OUT

Winner Is Owned by F. R. Hitchcock and Was Trained by Burch.

LONG ODDS GIVEN ON THE COLT

Whitechapel and Rigodon, of Keene's Stables, Were the Favorites.

DALY WINS OUT BY A NECK

Newly-Named Horse Beats The Rival and Another Good One—Inspector Stevens Takes the Steeplechase—Bullman Claims a Foul.

SARATOGA, Aug. 20.—The track dried out well over night and was in good shape this afternoon, so that the racing was first class in every way. The Grand Union Hotel Stakes, for two-year-olds, worth $10,000, was the leading event of the day, and ten horses ran, the Messrs. Keene adding Rigodon. He, with White Chapel, ruled favorite at 11 to 10, but there was a big play on Charles Elwood, Maxine, and Sallmaker.

The winner proved to be the 12 to 1 shot, Grey Friar, who went to the front right after the start, made all the running, and won, ridden out, by two lengths from Judith Campbell, with Whitechapel a length back. Bullman, Sallmaker's rider, made a claim of foul, but it was not allowed.

Winner a Good One.

Grey Friar is a gray colt, by St. George—Una B., and is the property of F. R. Hitchcock. W. P. Burch trains the colt. Today's race was his third start, he having won his first race easily, while in his second effort he was unlucky. He is a good-looking colt of the rough and tear sort, and bids fair to develop into one of the season's best two-year-olds.

Speculation on the first event was lively, with Slipshrift the favorite, but Belle of Lexington led all the way and won in a drive by a length from Wealth, who was a nose before Slipshrift.

In the second event, a steeplechase over the short course, Inspector Stevens, backed down from 8 to 5 to 11 to 20, won easily. Westwood was the pace-maker for half the journey, then Inspector Stevens took the lead and won by four lengths. Perion was pulled up and Seño fell.

Only Three Starters.

Only three took part in the fourth race, with The Rival an odds-on favorite, but Daly read head and head with him to the far turn, where he drew away. He tired at the end, but lasted long enough to win by a neck.

In the fifth race two-year-olds ran, with Mary McCafferty the favorite. She was beaten by Ella Snyder, because Odor outdrew Brennan at the finish.

In the closing event, boys that have never ridden a winner had the mounts, and San Andres was favorite. Rosinot, equal second choice with Lee King, went to the front on the far turn and won ridden out by a length from Mosketo.

and by the time all had cashed in the pencils thought a cyclone had struck them.

The feature of the day was the riding of Buchanan, who won on three of his mounts, two of which were favorites and the other the only outsider in the betting. "Pa" Bradley placed another race to his credit, Aline Abbott, a filly of his own raising, winning the first race on the card. She was ridden by "Hezekiah," who is reported to have run away from Bradley. Hezekiah has won many a purse for "Pa," and they should hang together.

SCHWALBE WINS AGAIN.

Takes Her Third Consecutive Race at Kinloch Park.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 20.—The card at Kinloch Park today was featureless, but the class of the contenders was above the average. The only upset of the day was in the fifth, a selling race for two-year-olds, at five furlongs. King's Lady, on account of recent good performances, went to the post a favorite at 8 to 5. The winner turned up in Welcome Light, a rank outsider, quoted in the betting at 15 to 20 to 1. King's Lady was second, and Chime third.

The third race brought to the post a very good field and was won by Barney Schreiber's good filly, Schwalbe, this making her third consecutive win at this meeting. Bonner had the best of the riding honors, winning on two of his mounts. It broke badly for the talent, only two favorites winning on the day.

The summaries:

First race—Selling; three-year-olds and upward; six furlongs. Brown Van (Bencham), 4 to 1, won; Nellie Bawn (J. O'Connor), 4 to 1, second; Cora Havill (McGinn), 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:15 1/5.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

It is said that Miss Alice Roosevelt will attend the races at Saratoga on Saturday as the guest of R. T. Wilson, Jr., the owner of Mexican and other good horses.

S. C. Hildreth has sold the bay horse Nitrate to C. E. Durnell for $2,500. Nitrate is well remembered by Washington racegoers, the horse having often started at Benning.

Skillful, the winner of the United States Hotel Stakes at Saratoga, is still astonishing the railbirds by his fast work. Tuesday he worked six furlongs over a sloppy track in 1:18, and only galloped. He will start once more at Saratoga before filling his engagement in the Futurity. It will be remembered that Skillful worked very fast for the United States Hotel Stakes, but still he was a 20 to 1 shot in that race.

W. C. Whitney's three-year-old colt, Yankee, winner of last year's Futurity, is again taking fast work, and Madden, his trainer, hopes to get him to a race either at Saratoga or Sheepshead Bay.

"Butch" Thompson, a noted bookmaker, died at Saratoga Springs on Tuesday of a complication of diseases. He made a fortune on the turf and took an interest in racing up to the time of his death, having sent out a parlay long ago on six horses, five of which won.

There was a lot of claiming from selling races at Saratoga the other day. Bill Daly secured the good performer Bar le Duc from the Ziegler string for $1,500, but he had to shake dice to get him, as two other owners, William Oliver and W. T. McGrath, also wanted the horse to see which should buy the horse, and with the proverbial Daly luck, "Father William" won. Bar le Duc seems to be a cheap horse at the price. W. R. Condon, a good two-year-old, was taken by J. L. Holland for $1,500.

Mexican, the $20,000 colt purchased at the recent sale of the Mackay horses, by R. T. Wilson, has almost recovered from his lameness. The colt went lame shortly after he was sold, much to the surprise of Mr. Wilson and his trainer, Tom Healey. The colt has been carefully nursed the son of Mirthful, and Tuesday he was given a five-furlong brush, which he accomplished in 1:08 1/2, pulling up apparently sound. If he continues to improve, it is likely he will be started in the Futurity on August 30.

W. C. Whitney is contemplating further improvements at the Saratoga track, and with that end in view has purchased additional land. A training track and a hospital for horses are among the improvements to be made, while hundreds of stalls for yearlings will be built. Another improvement will be the construction of a natorium for jockeys and horsemen.

Still another Austrian nobleman is after an American jockey to ride in Austria. Spencer, who has been engaged to go to that country, has been released from him by Baron Springer, saying he would give $10,000 for Tommy Burns or some other good jockey to ride his horses. Burns is under contract to W. C. Whitney, and of course, could not accept the offer of the nobleman, but Spencer will give some other jockey the chance.

Phil T. Chinn, son of the famous Kentucky trainer, Jack Chinn, is after the ranks of horse owners and breeders. Young Chinn has been engaged for some time in the pool room business in Lexington, but recently was compelled to close his room. A few days ago he purchased a number of weanlings from Matt Simpson and expects to purchase a farm where he will engage in breeding thoroughbreds. Young Chinn, it is said, has the backing of some wealthy men.

A veteran returned to the competition, also put up his next opponent with ease. H. W. Warner played the full five sets with J. R. Felt of New York, and won, and H. F. Allen of Philadelphia, beat
